THE former Edition of the Intellectual System, though the most valuable treasure of the ancient theology and philosophy extant in any language, had one considerable defect, (frequent amongst even the best writers of the last age,) that the references of its numerous quotations were very few, and those obscure and imperfect Such as were wan ting are therefore supplied in the present edition with the utmost exactness, chiefly fi|pia Dr. Laurence Mosheim's Latin translation of this work; those of the Author are included in [ ] to render them more clear and determinate.

The dedication to the House of Commons, in 1047, of the sermon on 1 John ii.3,4. omitted in the second and third editions, is restored likewise from the first,

To the whole is prefixed a new life of the Author, wherein is given a very particular account of his several excellent works.
